

OVERVIEW AND LEARNING OBJECTIVES

UPMC Procirca Adult ECMO Training Course 2025

Course Dates: May 8-10, 2025

UPMC Procirca is excited to announce our ELSO-endorsed Adult ECMO Training Course that meets step 1 and step 2 requirements for the ELSO Adult ECMO Certification Exam (E-AEC). The course will be held in person at the University of Pittsburgh Simulation Center in Pittsburgh, Pa.

- This three-day course is designed for the bedside ECMO caregiver including physicians, physician assistants, perfusionists, nurses, nurse practitioners, ECMO specialists, and respiratory therapists.
- Didactic sessions, lead by clinical domain experts from critical care medicine, cardiothoracic surgery, and perfusion services, along with high-fidelity, immersive simulations allows UPMC Procirca to provide a truly comprehensive educational experience for providers of all backgrounds and disciplines.
